

The multidisciplinary approach to kidney, prostate and bladder cancer

Chieti, May 10, 2018

Directors: Clara Natoli, Luigi Schips & Domenico Genovesi

Aula Multimediale

c/o Rettorato

Università degli Studi "G. D'Annunzio" Chieti-Pescara

Via dei Vestini, 31 - Chieti

10.00 Registration & Welcome coffee

10.45 Introduction & Welcome

Session I- KIDNEY CANCER

Moderators: Consiglia Carella, Katia Cannita

11.00 Partial nephrectomy for pT2 renal tumors

Francesco Berardinelli, Pescara

11.20 Adjuvant therapy for kidney cancer: what's going on?

Michele De Tursi, Chieti

11.40 The value of immunotherapy for kidney cancer

Michele Milella, Rome

12.20 Sequence of treatments in metastatic kidney cancer: open issues

Giovanni Mansueto, Frosinone

12.40 General Discussion

13.00 Light lunch

Session II - PROSTATE CANCER

Moderators: Michele Nicolai, Carlo Garufi

14.00 Germline mutations in prostate cancer: impact on clinical practice

Liborio Stuppia, Chieti

14.20 Localized and locally advanced prostate cancer: the urologist' point of view

Francesco Greco

14.40 Localized and locally advanced prostate cancer: the radiotherapist' point of view

Antonella Augurio, Chieti

15.00 Metastatic castration sensitive prostate cancer: latest evidences & open questions

Paolo Carlini, Rome

15.20 Metastatic castration resistant prostate cancer: latest evidences & open questions

Jamara Giampietro, Chieti

15.40 Adherence and persistence to the androgen deprivation therapy
Nicola Petragani, Chieti

16:00 General Discussion

16.20 Coffee-break

*Session III - BLADDER CANCER

Moderators: Luca Cindolo, Lucio Laudadio

16.40 Radical cystoprostatectomy: indications to different urinary diversions
Luigi Cormio,

17.00 Bladder sparing with trimodal therapy: state of art and future perspectives
Annamaria Vinciguerra, Chieti

17.20 Immunotherapy for advanced urothelial carcinoma: a changing scenario?
Franco Morelli, San Giovanni Rotondo

17.40 General Discussion

18.00 Take-home messages and conclusions